

“How to Pray for Each Other”

Selected Scriptures

Just like Epaphras, we should always be laboring earnestly in prayer for each other. Colossians 4:12

1. Pray that we would absolutely love the Holy Scriptures. Psalm 19, Psalm 119
2. Pray that we would have a humble heart. Psalm 51
 - a. To have a broken and contrite heart means to have deep, sincere sorrow for displeasing the Lord.
 - b. God gives grace and forgiveness to those who humble themselves. Psalm 51:17
3. Pray that we would live by faith in the unseen God, not by fear in what we see.
4. Pray that we would forsake the contamination of sin, and embrace the treasure of holiness.
Colossians 3:1-14
5. Pray that we would know the eternal love of God.
Ephesians 3:14-21
