If you want to experience the flow of love as never before, the next time you are in a competitive situation, pray that the others around you will be more outstanding, more praised, and more used of God than you.”

FINDING FREEDOM FROM THE NEED FOR APPROVAL

Do I ever feel disappointed when nobody notices my efforts?

Do I ever get upset when someone else gets the credit for my gift, idea, or act of service?

Do I ever find myself doing something so someone will notice?

Do I ever sulk when my past achievements are forgotten or ignored?

Do I ever get upset when no one says, “Thank you?”
